Staff

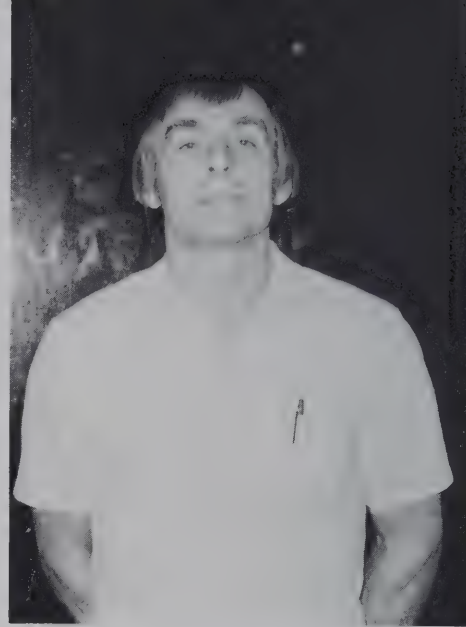

Linda Celler, Assistant Manager, and Dan O'Connor, Food Service Manager, add spice to the Kendall community with good food and cheery spirits.

Some people believe that dorms are just a place to sleep. Leslie Daniels can't sleep because she has too much studying (or procrastinating?) to do. Carolyn Lucas spends her time in the dorms talking on the phone. Greg Tucker and Pat Shay live it up in their dorm room.

Dorm Life

Goines and Rachel Jenkins practice posing for Ebony Magazine.

Easy Does It

“Knock, Knock . . .”

Be careful when you say, “Come in.” It could be the roving year-book photographer. These coeds were caught by surprise: Linda Clay, Sherrie Woods, Wendy Gerald, and Ras Kraulis.

Santa And Finals Are Coming To Town

The "laid back" atmosphere of the student lounge prevailed even with finals just around the corner. From playing cards to pretending to be a Christmas tree, these students are excellent examples of how to relax under the pressure of upcoming finals. Or is it the pressure of which holiday party to attend?

Sue and Birdie taking time out for the VOYAGER photograher (top left). This proves it, guys. Even when Valerie is "caught" in candid action shot, she still looks great. Thanks, Valerie (top right). Once again, the elite of Kendall College find time to share various pearls of wisdom (lower left). Oh, come on, Sue, it can't be that bad.

Campus Reflections

A variety of activities takes place on a college campus. Charles Abate (upper left) NU grad student finds his dorm room to be a comfortable place to relax and study. Upper right, Chris Wood poses in Firing Hall. Middle left, Willie Renfro tends to a weekly chore while Brenda Killins and Michelle Ruffin (right) keep Rasma Kraulis company at the Terra switchboard. (Lower left) Solomon Okeowo, Greg Tucker, and Linetta Moore work on a group project in the library.

The Student Governing Board (SGB) is the campus organization which represents the entire student body. All student-sponsored activities are coordinated through SGB and Student Activities Council (SAC). There were varied events and activities during the year which included a Welcome Back, Halloween, Christmas, New Year's, and Valentine parties, a Gameroom Tourney, Casino Night, and Founder's Day festivities. Pictured at right: Lawrin Riles, Pat Shay, Becky Pokel, Tim Thomas, Louis Kaufman, Arthur Peponis (President), Ted Greenfield (V-President), and Mary Dalton (advisor). Not pictured: Stephanie Randolph (Treasurer).

SGB

During a work session members of the Student Faculty Life Committee and International Club meet with the SGB to discuss upcoming activities. The SFLC sponsored such events as the Happy Hours and Cabarets. The International Club, newly reformed this year and comprised of students from many different countries, sponsored the St. Patrick's Day party.

Academics

Small classes and a relaxed, informal atmosphere are among the many appealing qualities of Kendall's programs.

Academics

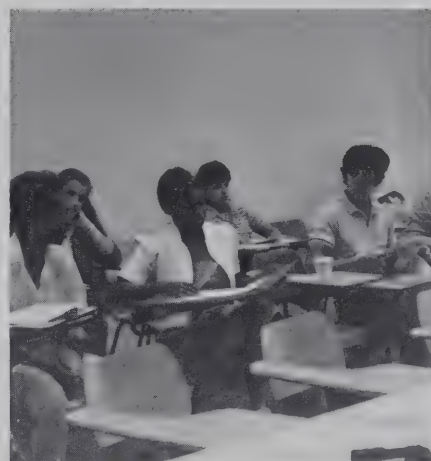

Students at Kendall College have the opportunity to enroll in a wide range of math and science courses. The curriculum includes computer programming as well as math courses in college algebra through statistics. The science courses extend from physical science through anatomy.

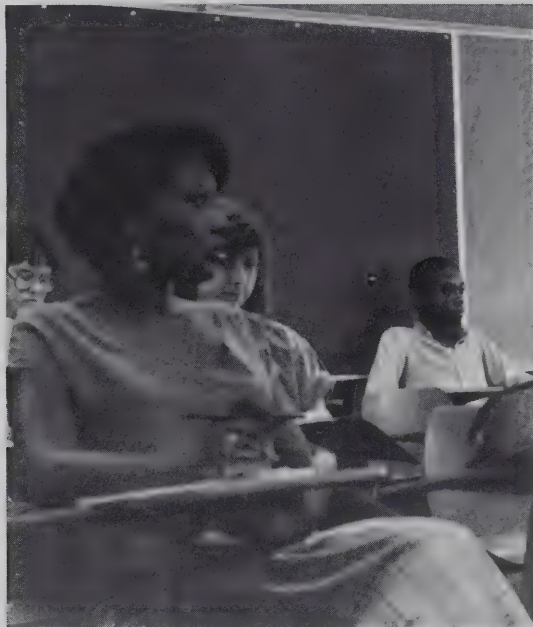

The growing success of Kendall College did not come by chance or through wishful thinking. Many individuals have contributed unselfishly to this fine institution. For their dedication to our growth, academically as well as personally. We, the students of Kendall, thank them.

Amanda J. Harmon

Hitting The Books

The curriculum at Kendall is not very easy. Therefore, it is essential for the students to attend class, pay close attention, and take good notes on lectures to "make the grades."

Nursing Graduates Receive Pins

Human Services

Students and faculty in the Human Services department enjoy a good meal and each other's company during the annual department Christmas Party.

Christmas Party

Entertainment was provided by Ted Greenfield and Bob Purse.

New Year/Welcome Back Party 1985

It may be cold outside, but our spirited party goes warm up the gameroom with their enthusiastic welcome to the new year and the second semester. Who needs to go to McDonalds to talk to a clown?

Silly or serious, you can always find something to do at a Kendall party. And have you ever noticed how the balloons "mysteriously" end up decorating the dorms when the party is over?

Just Hangin' Around

Dr. Andrew Cothran, Kendall's president, and Dean Albert Furbay join in the celebration.

— Welcome Back! —

A penny for your thoughts . . . or a quarter for the machines!

Ray Brown and Dru Radosevich—what a pair!

Dan O'Connor, Food Services Manager, is the man behind the scene who plans and prepares Kendall's meals and party foods. Three cheers for Dan!

Friday afternoon Happy Hour is a time when students, faculty, and staff can relax and enjoy each other's company. Sissel Botten, Anne-Cathrine Sundseth, and Robin Weiss make plans for a weekend of fun and relaxation.

Patty Stetzel, Beverly Priest, Dan Regan, and Melinda Fry enjoy a game of cards while Grace Love and Charles Williams sharpen their skills at pool.

TGIF Happy Hour

Aaron Bradford practices his stance for GQ magazine.

Dave Gripp and Greg Tucker accept the challenge of foot ball.

Caryl Turner, Jack Zimmerman, Leon Aufdemberge, Muriel Smock, and Al Furbay join the crowd in toasting the weekend.

Pay Shay cheers the audience to get them in a festive mood.

Bob Purse sings in tune with his guitar.

Cabaret III

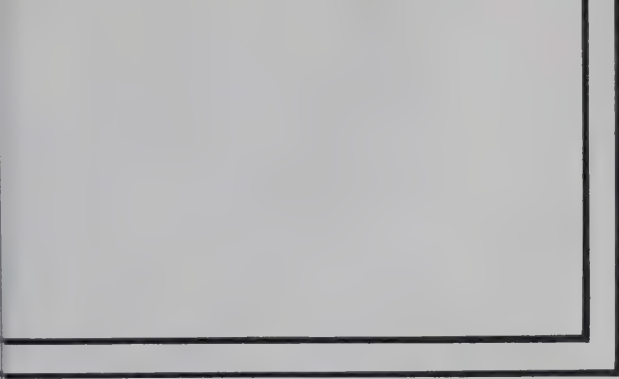

While emceeing the Cabaret, Pat Shay and Ted Greenfield clown around to keep the audience laughing. The acting skills of Tyrone Brown and Robin Weiss were something worth hearing about in the Cabaret. Ted Greenfield and Tim Thomas duel to the tune of their guitar picking music.

A Howling Good Time

Among the celebrities attending this year's Halloween Party were Pinocchio (Robin Weiss), Stoneage Couple (Lewis Thorpe and Pat Donahue), Sherlock Holmes (Arthur Peponis), Punk Rock star (Melinda Fry), Arab Sheik (Ron Delfin), Dean of Students (Mary Dalton), Wolfwoman and friends (Sheryl Stewart, Joanna Allen, Gail Jackson).

The annual Halloween Party is one of the highlights of Kendall's social calendar. Sponsored by the Student Government Board, the party featured decorations by Ron Delfin and music by Ty "Burnin" Brown and Mark "Mixin" Allen.

Founder's Day

On Friday, May 4, students, faculty, and staff got together on a sunny, cool afternoon at Evanston Lighthouse Park for the annual fun-filled Founder's Day. Keitheia Johnson gets off to a shaking start in hopes for a possible audition for the Kendall Hulabowl.

In action packed events, Archie Clé concentrates on an important horseshoe toss for a possible clinch of events. A photogenic team starring David Neimi, Tuki Worell, Greg Tucker, and the backbone of the team John Zimmerman and Arlene Ruff pose for a Victory Celebration. Jeff, Ras, Martha, and Lisa take a breather and wet their whistle with a beer or two.

Founder's Day activities get off and rolling, while Coach Dave Greenwood organizes teams for a day of fun and excitement. Activities start out with school spirited teams. In the upper left corner Tyrone Brown and teammates pose for the camera in between events. You never know what to expect at Founder's Day (middle left). Maybe next years' Olympic stars.

After a day filled with fun events, Cafeteria Dan shows Jill Gordon the art of preparing top quality food, barbeque style. The barbeque is tradition after Founder's Day outside in the court yard.

Turn around, John, the net is over here!
Dave Greenwood (below) gets into the act with the video crew. Smile, you're on candid camera.

Mike Alexander and Ed Mills fight over the bat.
And they're supposed to be setting examples for the students?

More Fun At Founder's Day

Keithiea Johnson and Sonia Lascelles practice their hulahooping skills. Round and round they go...

Marcia and Dave monkey around in the children's play area ... children must play!

Mike Alexander, Janice Glor, Elliott Fisher, Brad Shaffer, Jeff Tasker, and Jay Intini pose for a team picture after a grueling

“Happy Trails To You, 'Til We Meet Again...

The 1985 Kendall Voyager is dedicated to Janice Glor without whose patience, determination, and unfailing sense of humor this yearbook would not have been completed.

Good luck to Janice and Milt who leave Kendall College this spring for “greener pastures.” We’ll miss their warmth, their encouragement, their friendship, and their wonderful smiles!
